

Manufacturing Welding

Mr. Brandon F. Hernandez
(AAS) Welding, Structural
Welder, Combination Welder,
Metal Fabricator, Certified
NCCER Instructor, AWS, OSHA

Three Year-Welding Program Sequence

Business and Industry Endorsement

- 9th - None
- 10th- First Year/ Introduction to Welding
- 11th-Second Year/ Welding I
- 12th- Third year/ Welding II

Welding Course Description

- The Welding Technology program prepares students for entry level high paying positions in construction and welding trade industries. Students are trained in welding shop safety, blueprint reading/layout and fabrication.
- The Welding Technology courses provide students with the opportunities to earn Industry Certifications through (AWS) American Welding Society

Dual Enrollment

- Welding 1317-Introduction to Fabrication and Layout-
Credit Hours-3
- Welding 1327-Welding Codes and Standards- Credit
Hours-3
- Welding 1428- Introduction to Shielded Metal Arc
Welding (SMAW)- Credit Hours-4
- Welding 1430-Introduction to Gas Metal Arc
Welding(GMAW)-Credit Hours-4
- Total Hours- 14

Industry Certification

American Welding Society

Student Club/Organization

Skills USA

Questions/Information

Mr. Brandon F. Hernandez

CT-106- Joe Calvillo Cate Complex

Bfhernandez@wisd.us